DHS Office of Intelligence and Analysis FIELD OPERATIONS DIVISION

We collect, analyze and disseminate intelligence to and from our partners to support DHS and the Intelligence Community.

WHAT YOU'LL DO

Our personnel are stationed throughout the U.S. and its territories, working with federal, state, local, tribal, territorial and private sector (FSLTTP) partners to execute the intelligence cycle at the local level. These local and regional perspectives help inform the national threat picture. You will perform one of these functions:

INTELLIGENCE OFFICERS (IOs)

IOs act as intelligence collectors, reporters, analysts and disseminators. Their primary mission is to help FSLTTP partners conduct and facilitate the intelligence cycle at the local level.

REPORT OFFICERS (ROs)

ROs are the subject matter experts in human intelligence (HUMINT) collection. ROs report raw information that intelligence analysts use across DHS and the IC.

INTELLIGENCE ANALYSTS (IAs)

IAs research and analyze raw information for incorporation in intelligence products for DHS and the IC.

OPERATIONAL MANAGEMENT TEAM (HEADQUARTERS SUPPORT)

From DHS headquarters, this team develops and manages intelligence programs, resources and systems required for deployed field personnel.

BENEFITS

We believe your dedication to protecting the nation should be rewarded. That's why we're proud to offer:

- Flexible work schedules
- Recruiting incentives, including a student loan repayment program
- Federal health and life insurance, and retirement benefits
- Professional development opportunities

What is DHS?

The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) has a vital mission: to secure the nation from the many threats we face. This requires the dedication of more than 240,000 employees in jobs that range from aviation and border security to emergency response, from cybersecurity analyst to chemical facility inspector. Our duties are wide-ranging, and our goal is clear – keeping America safe. Below is a partial listing of DHS components.

Office of Intelligence and Analysis

“I love the idea of being able to focus on domestic threats and ensuring that information is flowing from the IC to law enforcement and other non-traditional partners back and forth.”

- Macy

How Does the Office of Intelligence and Analysis (I&A) fit in?

I&A's role is to collect, analyze and disseminate intelligence across DHS, the Intelligence Community, local and state government, law enforcement and the private sector to ensure homeland security.
