DHS Office of Intelligence and Analysis SECURITY MANAGEMENT BRANCH

We provide information, as well as physical, personnel and industrial security to keep the nation safe.

WHAT YOU'LL DO

Our branch provides security services that enable the Office of Intelligence and Analysis (I&A) to execute its mission while complying with federal requirements. We verify personnel security clearances, provide security for events, and manage and mitigate incidents such as unauthorized disclosure of classified information. You'll join one of our teams:

OPERATIONS TEAM

- Oversees operations security (OPSEC) and classification efforts
- Manages Intelligence Community (IC) Badge issuance
- Develops standard operating procedures and conducts security compliance reviews
- Processes contractor suitability investigations

STATE & LOCAL TEAM

- Trains security liaisons to develop and manage their own security programs
- Processes security clearance requests for state and local government personnel
- Conducts security assessments at Fusion Centers across the nation
- Provides day-to-day administrative support for Fusion Center personnel

BENEFITS

We believe your dedication to protecting the nation should be rewarded. That's why we're proud to offer:

- Federal health and life insurance, and retirement benefits
- Recruiting incentives, including a student loan repayment program
- Flexible work schedules
- Professional development opportunities

What is DHS?

The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) has a vital mission: to secure the nation from the many threats we face. This requires the dedication of more than 240,000 employees in jobs that range from aviation and border security to emergency response, from cybersecurity analyst to chemical facility inspector. Our duties are wide-ranging, and our goal is clear – keeping America safe. Below is a partial listing of DHS components.
